THE LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL BUREAU.

This bureau was organized in 1914 under the authority of Chapter 322 of the Laws of 1913. It is, in effect, an instrumentality of the Legislature. Its business is to prepare or assist in the preparation or amendment of legislative bills and to "give such consideration to and service concerning any bill before the Legislature which circumstances will permit, and which is in any way requested by the Governor of the State or the Senate or the Assembly, or any committee of the Legislature having such bills before it for consideration." This, of course, includes investigations and examinations as to constitutionality, etc. The chief of the bureau also acts as aid to legislative committees and it is his duty to "advise as occasion may arise, as to needed revision of the statutes." The bureau, whose chief is Mr. John A. McGilvray, is located in room 48, second floor of the Capitol.
